Garage sale means a sale held by a property owner or renter of property in a garage, on a driveway or parking lot, porch, attic, or lawn, but not in the living area of any property.

Sale items to be used shall be household items such as furniture, tools, glassware, clothing, or other possessions of the person holding the sale.

No person shall have more than two (2) sales per calendar year, nor shall any such sale be longer than a period of three (3) days.
